This responds to your 30 October 2006 letter in which you appealed the 19 October 2006 determination of this Agency in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for an unredacted copy of the article "A Lingering Tragedy" that appeared in Studies in Intelligence in 1981. Specifically you appealed our determination to deny you access to portions of the document on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3).

The Agency Release Panel considered your appeal and directed that the document be re-reviewed. As a result, additional information has been released. The redacted material must continue to be protected from release on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). Therefore, in accordance with Agency regulations, the Agency Release Panel has granted your appeal in part. For your information, Agency regulations are set forth in part 1900 of title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

In accordance with the provisions of the FOIA, you have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in a United States district court.

A copy of the document as approved for release is enclosed.

Sincerely,
